

Email from Chris Hurst – Powys – 7 March 2018

Pursuant to the Re-use of Public Sector Information Regulations, we are seeking the right to re-use all documents and information publicly available through your website for the Powys Pension Fund. We seek the ability to re-use the documents and information in the following manner: include the information in our searchable commercial database (available to clients at www.evestment.com) and make the responsive documents available to our clients for reference and/or download.

In accordance with RPSI, we expect a response to our request for re-use within 20 days of our request date.

If you choose to deny this request or limit the scope of documents and information subject to re-use, please provide a written explanation for the denial, including a reference to the specific statutory exemption(s) upon which you rely.
