

When measuring performance against specified time limits for disclosure do funds 'stop the clock' for the period it is out of the fund's controls

e.g when awaiting a reply from member / employer / third party

Pension Board Chair is adamant that it runs from start to finish without any breaks

Fair deal is set out in a guidance note

Has the DFE made any directive that Academies follow the guidance?